FEATURING AND PRODUCERS AND DEEJAYS

CHRIS COSTANZO

- Recently Nominated for a Grammy Award
- Topping the Billboard magazine "Dance Music Chart" at #3 for 4 weeks
- Headlining at Twilight in Miami during Winter Music Conference 2009

Combining a lifelong love of music with a passion for the dance floor, Chris Costanzo works to create an energy on the floor that is all his own. With an appetite for massive, hands-in-the-air anthems, tough tribal beats and pumping underground house sounds, Chris knows how to bring a dance floor to life, unleashing wave after wave of energy with seamless mixing and a natural ability to connect with his audience. Chriss' extraordinary talent and showmanship is perhaps best appreciated during his live DJ sets. "It's more about how I play the records as opposed to which records I play," offers Chris. Without a doubt, he is one of the hardest working people in the game and destined to become a household name. Undeniably bound for superstar status, Chris live performances transcend the dance floor, inspiring awe and cultivating a diverse following of revelers.

ROB LEE

From his days in Philadelphia Rob was able to amaze crowds from the first pounding beat. Blending musical styles in marathon sets, Rob defined himself and set the pace for the entire city, creating a musical standard and sound that would become the soundtrack for Philadelphia's nightlife. To date Rob has completed productions for Distant Drum Recordings, Southside Recordings and completed remixes for artists such as Suzanne Palmer, Deborah Cox, Nina Sky, Alicia Keys and Ciara. Rob's trademark creativity and growing technical expertise ensure that he will effortlessly exceed expectations in his studio work. And there is little doubt that he will continue to inspire, enthrall and entertain legions of dedicated dancefloor devotees as he continues to play sets filled with imagination, intensity and passion.

RESIDENT DJ SHAMBALA

DJ/Producer Shambala's sound is a unique and rich hybrid of diverse backgrounds and interests. Growing up in Colombia, Miami and Los Angeles, Shambala aka Andrew Concha has tackled and mastered nearly every genre of electronic music during his career, and currently plays gigs in Miami, New York, and San Francisco, as well as his home Florida region of Sarasota-Tampa-St Pete area. Producing tracks by day, and DJing at night, Shambala still finds time to organize periodic events and festivals - all with a unique vibe that is carried out and emphasized through his music and ability to control the movement on the dance floor.

XRYS SANTHOS

Xrys hails from Greece, bringing a unique brand of creativity to his minimal and tech house sets. This DJ/ Producer will make you dance and enjoy the love of electronic music.
